

RULES AND REGULATIONS KANNAPOLIS CEMETERY ON WEST “C” STREET

I. GENERAL GUIDELINES

- (A) Experience has proved the adoption and enforcement of rules to be necessary to secure a proper burial, to protect the interest of lot owners, and to preserve the beauty of the cemetery. All persons are urgently and respectfully requested to conform to these rules and regulations and to assist the management in enforcement of the same.
- (B) Kannapolis Cemetery is also subject to the rules and regulations that have been established by the City Council for all city park property and public open space. - (D) Due to the circumstances regarding the records for the Kannapolis Cemetery, the Parks and Recreation staff will do all that is possible to assist in the location of loved ones or family burial plots. However, lack of adequate records and failure to previously place markers on family plots, has made it difficult to locate all individuals.
- (E) All lots have six grave plots. Lots have dimensions of 20' (twenty) feet long and 15' (fifteen) feet wide. All plots are 5' (five) feet wide and 10' (ten) feet long.
- (F) It is the preference of the department that remaining plots within a family lot may only be used or transferred within the immediate family of the original purchaser. Immediate family members are defined as spouse, lineal descendants and siblings. The transfer of burial rights begins with the spouse, the oldest child, second oldest, etc.; then to the oldest grandchild, second oldest, etc; then the oldest great-grandchild and so on. If there are no children, then it begins with the oldest sibling of the original purchaser, then second oldest and so on.
- (G) A transfer of burial rights within a family on any plot in the Kannapolis Cemetery can be done with a notarized statement turned into the Parks and Recreation Director. A permanent copy of this transfer will be held in a file for the given lot. This transfer letter must list the date, Cemetery section, lot number, individual transferring the rights and individual receiving the rights. There is a fee for all burial rights transfers within immediate family members. All fees will go into the perpetual care/cemetery improvement fund. See fee schedule for amount.
- (H) Remaining plots on a lot may be transferred outside the immediate family; all transfers must be done in the same accordance as transfers within a family. There is a fee to transfer plots outside of immediate family; the fee is per plot. All fees will go into the perpetual care/cemetery improvement fund. See fee schedule for amount.

If a marker is not placed within six months of burial, the City will use the security deposit to have a marker made and placed on the grave plot. If a current family marker or headstone exists where the space is present for the information of the deceased (companion marker or family marker), then the City
