

Juvenile Fire Setter Intervention Program

The Juvenile Fire Setter Intervention Program is taught by taskforce personnel who are trained intervention specialists through the National Fire Academy.

The KFD recommends that children of any age with a history of fire setting or fire play participate in the program which uses age-appropriate, interactive methods for teaching children the deadly effects of fire.

Please contact Kannapolis Fire at 704-920-4260 for more information.