Message from the Chief

It is my pleasure to present the Kannapolis Police Department's 2025 annual report. We have and will continue to maintain our proactive stance in combating criminal activity and providing you a safe environment to live, work, and play. It is our mission to deliver high quality, efficient, and consistent police services. We have been successful in these efforts due to the strong relationships built and sustained over the years with our citizens. One of our greatest resources continues to be our citizens. You are our eyes and ears, and we need you to communicate with us. The information you provide is essential in our quest to maintain a low crime rate and protect our community.

Downtown Kannapolis continues to evolve with the opening of new businesses and construction of new housing. With the sports entertainment venue being in full operation and more businesses opening, it's become a common place to have hundreds of people visiting downtown daily. This number certainly increases to thousands of downtown visitors during baseball season. Plans to make our downtown a safe and inviting place for residents and visitors have been in place for some time. We continue to evaluate these plans to ensure positive interactions are taking place within our community.

Just like downtown, the Police Department continues to go through change. These changes are designed to best meet the needs of the community we serve today and in the future. While we did not add any new positions this past year our evaluation of the added Felony Investigator, Crime Analyst / Data Manager, and Recruiting Sergeant positions over the past three years have continued to positively impact the department. The added Felony Investigator position has helped reduce the caseloads that were being carried by the other five Investigators assigned to the Unit. The added Crime Analyst / Data Manager position has helped to enhance departmental efficiency, by using an intelligence led policing model to identify past and predictive crime trends through examining departmental crime data. These efforts help to better allocate personnel and resources to reduce and abate crime in identified areas. The added Recruiting Sergeant position has resulted in developing a larger applicant pool, filling numerous vacancies with good high caliber candidates, and has helped to reduce workloads throughout the department.

We have hundreds of citizen contacts daily and we are very fortunate that only a small number of them become confrontational. Our officers are trained to diffuse volatile situations, not make them worse. Most of our department has received hours of training in Crisis Intervention and Mental Health First Aid. We treat all citizens with respect even when they are not willing to accept it. We will continue to operate in a professional and respectful manner in the hopes of fostering public trust and mutual respect.

I hope our community and its leaders continue to value, encourage, and support our agency's most precious and valuable resource - the proud men and women of the Kannapolis Police Department. As you read this annual report, you will find a mere snapshot of our operations and the hard work our personnel have done during the past year to protect our community and its quality of life. They have rendered thousands of commendable and selfless acts that cannot be adequately captured or recognized by a summary report such as this. These acts, however, are reflected in the respect they have earned from our community and the pride that is so visibly apparent in the eyes and faces of those who wear the badge and stand in harm's way. Thank you for allowing us to serve you!

Minimum eligibility requirements are established by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education & Training Standards Commission which certifies law enforcement officers in North Carolina.

The Kannapolis Police Department's turnover rate during the last ten years has varied from as low as 8.6% to as high as 24%. The ten-year average is 13.3%. Crime Statistics and Trends

The Kannapolis Police Department recognizes crime control as a critical mission and one of the fundamental priorities of all police agencies. Community safety is essential for quality of life for citizens as well as governmental progress.

The Kannapolis Police Department participates in both state and federal crime reporting systems and statistics show the crime rate in Kannapolis continues to be significantly lower than the statewide rate. According to the most current crime statistics provided by the State Bureau of Investigation, the statewide crime index rate is 2438.20 crimes per 100,000 persons. The crime index rate for Kannapolis is 1677.10, a rate which is approximately 37% lower than the statewide numbers. Compared to the prior five-year average, the total number of part one crimes is down 16%. These numbers are subject to change as cases are investigated and updated.

Kannapolis continues to be one of the safest cities in North Carolina as the total crime rates illustrate. The rapidly growing downtown reflects the stability of the city and its attractiveness to new business. As Kannapolis continues to move forward, the city is proving to be an ideal place to live, to work, and to play.

Internal Affairs Information/ Citizen Complaints

One of the most important functions administered through the Office of the Chief of Police is that of internal affairs. Contemporary law enforcement agencies are complex organizations engaged in high liability activities with the corresponding need to maintain the integrity of its operations and the ethical conduct of its members. It is the policy of the Police Department to investigate complaints and allegations related to internal discipline in a manner that will assure the community of prompt corrective action in the event of employee misconduct, while at the same time protecting employees from unwarranted criticism pursuant to the proper discharge of official duties. The policy provides for the investigation of alleged or suspected violations of law or departmental policies.

Complaints may be made in person, by phone, or in writing. Anonymous complaints will be accepted for investigation to the extent feasible. Citizen complaints are normally referred to the supervisor of the accused employee. When the supervisor is not on duty, the complaint is referred to the appropriate on-duty Division or Bureau Commander.

The Police Department recorded thirty-eight (38) formal complaints between January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2025. There were two (2) complaints referred to Internal Affairs. Of the two (2) internal affairs investigations during 2025, misconduct was established in all two (2) cases.

The low ratio of complaints received to the tens of thousands of public contacts initiated by Police Department employees during 2025 indicates an extremely low frequency of complaints and an even lower frequency of sustained misconduct.

The internal affairs process also includes procedures for the routine reporting and administrative review of high liability police activities in addition to the investigation of citizen complaints. Such reviews are conducted via the agency's internal command structure as well as through oversight bodies such as the Collision Review Board. An annual analysis is conducted each year of all internal affairs matters to evaluate these internal review processes and identify any patterns or trends that indicate the need for any changes in training, equipment, or departmental policy. During 2025, the following reviews were conducted:

Activity or Incident Type	2024 Reviews	2025 Reviews
Internal Affairs	3	5
Use of Force	19	16
Vehicular Pursuits	15	22
Forcible Entry into Private Residence	2	8
Collisions Involving Police Vehicles	26	29

Field Operations Overview

The Field Operations Division is the largest bureau of the Police Department. It consists of uniformed Patrol as well as the Traffic and Canine Units. The core function of the Field Operations Bureau is crime suppression and prevention through uniform presence and response to 911 calls for service.

Patrol

The patrol Bureau operates 24-hours a day, 365 days a year. It is made up of four patrol squads that work twelve-hour shifts. Patrol handles all calls for service and proactively patrols the City of Kannapolis to deter criminal activity and ensure the overall safety of the residents. The services provided range from preliminary investigations of major crimes to problem solving complex quality of life issues.

Kannapolis is broken up into 9 zones. Here is a map of the City of Kannapolis and the area patrol covers.

Canine Unit

The Kannapolis Police Department’s Canine Unit was established in 1999 and originally consisted of two highly trained canines. As the teams were so successful, the department now has a total of five canines. Four are used in patrol and the fifth, a bloodhound, is used primarily for tracking. During 2025, the unit had a total of 168 deployments

The unit is currently made up of four canine teams and each team is assigned to a Patrol Squad. Each canine team must attend a six-week training course and pass a certification before working in a patrol function. After the initial certification each canine team must certify yearly through the North Carolina Police Work Dog Association (NCPDA). This certification ensures the integrity of the handler and canine for court purposes. The newest addition to the Canine Unit is Roman, pictured with handler Officer Devin Steele.

Traffic Unit

The Kannapolis Police Department’s Traffic Unit is a line of support that provides technical expertise to the department in the areas of accident investigation, drunk and/or impaired driving detection and arrest, and the operation of speed detection RADAR and LIDAR systems. This unit investigates all serious and fatal motor vehicle accidents that occur within the city limits as well as citizen complaints of speeding vehicles, illegal parking, and other traffic related issues. Our primary goal is to ensure the safety of motorists and pedestrians. Our DWI enforcement patrols work to get dangerous drivers off the streets, and our community outreach efforts bring our officers out to speak at driver education classes, and to promote driving safety training at community events.

SRT / Negotiations / Search & Rescue

Special Response Team Overview

The Kannapolis Police Department's Special Response Team (SRT) was established in 1992. Since the team's inception, it has provided a ready response to situations that are beyond the capabilities of normally equipped and trained department personnel. Officers in this unit are held to a higher standard than average police officers.

The goal of the Kannapolis SRT is to protect human life and to apprehend criminal offenders in high-risk situations. SRT officers are required to attain a level of tactical and weapons expertise that will overwhelm any threat which may arise. This increases the likelihood of safe and efficient resolutions to life-endangering operations.

Negotiations Unit

The Kannapolis Police Department's Crisis Negotiations Unit currently consists of seven highly trained negotiators.

Negotiators from our agency have received specialized training from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Texas A & M University, Institute of Police Technology and Management and the University of North Florida. They also conduct regularly scheduled training sessions in addition to training sessions held in conjunction with the tactical unit and numerous other agencies.

Negotiators work in conjunction with the tactical unit hoping to find a peaceful solution to crisis situations. They also collect vital intelligence and data that is relayed in real time to the tactical unit to aid them in preparing for a dynamic resolution to the situation.

The team consists of twelve police officers and two civilian paramedics from Cabarrus County EMS. During 2025, the team was deployed four times.

Search and Rescue Team Overview

Members of the Kannapolis Police Department have joined with the Kannapolis Fire Department's trained and qualified Search and Rescue Team (SAR). Recognized by the NC Office of Emergency Management, Wilderness/Land Search and Rescue teams provide support to local emergency management or emergency services agencies by assisting in the location of missing persons, lost/overdue hikers, persons with cognitive impairments who have wandered from caretakers, or any individual that is reported as a lost or injured and whereabouts are unknown.

SAR Team assistance is provided with search management, search team members, trained Wilderness SAR members, human trackers, and K9 teams (utilized for tracking/training, air scent, cadaver, water search and disaster search).

Support Services

Support Services Overview

The Support Services Bureau is responsible for providing support to several other agency operations. These functions include the operation of the e911 Communications Center, Records Management, Property and Evidence Management, Felony Investigations and Vice/Narcotics enforcement. These specialized units include forty sworn and civilian personnel and are a vital piece of our overall policing operations.

Felony Investigations

The Criminal Investigation Division's Felony Investigation Unit's mission is to identify, target, arrest, and successfully prosecute individuals involved in criminal activity within the City of Kannapolis with a specific emphasis on felony crimes. Members of the Felony Investigations Unit are assigned to investigate serious criminal offenses such as homicide, sexual assaults, robbery, aggravated assault, fraud, identity theft, and a variety of other crimes. Members of this specialized unit receive specific detailed training in a variety of investigative techniques. To achieve this mission, investigators utilize contemporary investigative methods; pursuing investigative leads, technology and using proactive measures commensurate with North Carolina and United States law.

Evidence/Crime Scene

Included in Felony Investigations is evidence and criminal forensics or crime scene. The department's Evidence Custodian is responsible for the control and tracking of all found, recovered, and evidentiary property for the agency. Evidence and property are logged in and maintained until appropriate court dispositions are obtained from the court system or found property is returned to its rightful owner. There are thousands of individual pieces of evidence entered into the evidence control system, all of which must be accounted for. An inventory of the evidence room is conducted on an annual basis.

The crime scene unit is manned by two investigators and, when needed, is supplemented by other members who are trained in methods of evidence collection, photography, latent evidence, and other duties associated with processing crime scenes. The crime scene investigators have the unique responsibility of being able to re-create the crime scene in criminal proceedings which may occur years after the actual offense.

Vice, Narcotics & Organized Crime

The Vice Narcotics and Organized Crime (VNOC) unit is responsible for collecting, recording, maintaining, and disseminating intelligence data on criminal initiatives within and affecting the City of Kannapolis and surrounding areas. This unit concentrates on illegal activities such as narcotics, gambling, prostitution, and illegal counterfeiting trademark offenses. This is accomplished by developing informant links, undercover operations, surveillance, handling criminal intelligence data gathered by the agency, and arresting narcotics offenders who engage in illegal drug transactions within our territorial jurisdiction. These offenses are not isolated to one geographical area and unit members frequently require assistance and co-operation from other law enforcement agencies, as well as, supplementing other agencies when needed.

Support Services

Communications

The main function of the Kannapolis Police Department's Communications Center is to satisfy the immediate informational needs of emergency first responders during their assigned operations. The center is designed to facilitate the exchange of information from the public to law enforcement, fire personnel, medical responders, and other emergency service agencies. There are many methods to ensure an accurate, efficient, and timely dissemination of information and calls for service dispatched. These procedures or actions include the Next Generation 911 system and computer aided dispatch technology used in conjunction with automatic vehicle locators and CAD2CAD. This software allows the transfer of emergency data between Kannapolis, Cabarrus County and City of Concord Communications via computer technology.

Records Unit

Records personnel are the face of the agency by being the first point of contact for the public when coming to the Police Department lobby for service. They assist with appointments, disseminating reports and information, and creating calls for service that require officers to be dispatched to the lobby.

The Records Unit is responsible for data entry into the agency's Records Management System (RMS). This data consists of incident reports, arrests, citations, traffic crashes, document imaging, and a variety of other reports and documentation. Each case opened by the agency, regardless of type, is required to be processed by the records unit daily for quality assurance and clerical errors. They are also responsible for keeping up with the file retention schedule.

The agency is required to follow National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) standards. The Records Unit completes monthly reports for the agencies crime statistics and does a bi-yearly audit which is submitted to the SBI.

Special Operations

Special Operations Overview

The Special Operations Bureau is responsible for community-based services which includes the School Resource Officers, the D.A.R.E. program, Public Safety Cadets, and Crime Prevention. This component includes Administrative Investigations, the Training function, and Recruitment. Also included are the agency's Reserve Officer and Park Ranger Units.

Community Services Unit

The Community Services Unit is primarily responsible for the liaison between the Kannapolis Police Department and the Kannapolis City School System, providing officers to the school system as dedicated School Resource Officers and Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) instructors. The unit is also responsible for Community and Business Watch organizations, Public Safety Cadet advisement, Victim/Witness coordination, Crime Prevention, Nuisance Abatement coordination, and other proactive departmental and city-wide programs.

This unit works diligently reaching out to citizens of the community to provide education on crime prevention, child safety, and in the case of children, helping them to understand the importance of making the right decisions in life. This is accomplished through presentations conducted for civic organizations, schools, and churches. We participate in community events and partner with local businesses to educate citizens on, among other things, the importance of not driving after consuming alcohol or drugs.

Public Safety Cadets

Public Safety Cadets (PSC) is a nonprofit organization founded and managed by active duty and retired law enforcement officers and business executives who support law enforcement. PSC establishes partnerships with local, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies and other public safety entities to provide training and practical experiences, national programs and events, and other support that will better prepare young adults to make an informed decision about a career in the public safety sector.

Officers from the Kannapolis Police Department and Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office serve as mentors and provide guidance, support, and practical vocational experiences to the cadets. The program creates a pathway for future employment in law enforcement. It also includes a leadership development academy, scholarships, mentor training, and a youth safety program. Participants will have the option to participate in national events such as the Marksmanship and Career Skills Competition.

The program is open to Kannapolis and Cabarrus County residents, age 14 to 20, who are interested in a career in public safety. For more information on Public Safety Cadets, please contact the Kannapolis Police Department at rnimer@kannapolisnc.gov or 704.920.4000.

Park Rangers

Park Ranger personnel are non-sworn members of the Police Department whose primary duties are patrolling the City's parks and greenways and assisting patrons with non-emergency situations. Should there be an emergency situation while they are on patrol, necessary help can quickly be obtained. Park Rangers are an additional presence in the parks and greenways and can take incident reports and answer questions.

The West Avenue Park, which is in the heart of downtown, and the other parks and greenways are some of the most frequented places in the city. The program allows for sworn personnel to be available for the more typical emergency situations that may arise throughout the city. The program continues to be a good recruitment avenue as the responsibilities of the job give park rangers experiences that could lead to a career in law enforcement if that is the direction they desire to go.

Recruitment / Training

Recruitment and Selection

The Kannapolis Police Department recognizes the importance of recruiting and hiring qualified candidates. Multiple issues related to social, political, and economic forces all play a role in shaping the state of recruitment and retention. With the City's growing population, the agency maintains its goal to hire additional individuals as well as retain current employees.

The recruitment Sergeant, along with other employees, work to recruit potential employees through recruitment events and strive to showcase all the Kannapolis Police Department has to offer. Maintaining higher standards in the employment process ensures the agency obtains the most qualified candidates.

For police officers, minimum eligibility requirements are established by the North Carolina Department of Justice -

Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission, which certifies law enforcement officers in North Carolina. The selection process is extensive. The process includes a physical abilities test and a written test, a panel review, a comprehensive background investigation, a polygraph examination, a medical and physiological examination, and drug screen. Trainees must complete basic law enforcement training at a state approved academy, followed by the Department's own 20-week field training program. Police officers remain in a probationary status for a period of one year following initial appointment.

For telecommunicators, minimum eligibility requirements are established by the North Carolina Department of Justice - Sheriff's Education and Training Standards Commission, which certifies telecommunicators in North Carolina. The selection process is extensive as well. The process includes a dispatcher test, a panel review, a comprehensive background investigation, a medical and physiological examination, and drug screen. Trainees are required to complete a certification course and on-the job training. Telecommunicators remain in a probationary status for a period of one year following initial appointment.

Training

In-Service training is an extremely important aspect of any law enforcement agency's operations. Well-trained officers are better prepared to act decisively and correctly in the broad spectrum of situations in which they respond. Benefits of extensive training include less legal liability for the municipality and more importantly officer safety. One of the most important functions of the Special Operations Bureau is the scheduling of training. During the year of 2025, Sworn Officers, Telecommunicators, Park Rangers and Civilian personnel attended a total of 21,425 hours of various training. This training included Firearm Qualifications, Hazardous Materials, Legal Update, Juvenile Minority Sensitivity, Mental Health, Ethics, Bias Based Profiling, Harassment, Less Lethal Weapons, Infectious Disease, Advanced Law Enforcement Rapid Response (ALERRT) training, Responding to Civil Matters, Responding to Traffic Incidents, and Evidence Handling Best Practices. Total training hours are broken down into four main categories. Sworn personnel completed 20,231.25 hours, Telecommunicator personnel completed 863.75 hours, Park Rangers completed 113.50 hours and Civilian personnel completed 216.50 hours of training for the year of 2025.

Accreditation

To maintain our professional edge and commitment to excellence, the Kannapolis Police Department continues to uphold Advanced Accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). This distinction represents the highest level of accreditation in law enforcement and is achieved by only a small percentage of agencies nationwide.

In March 2026, the Kannapolis Police Department was proudly awarded reaccreditation, marking our ninth consecutive accreditation award since first earning this distinction in 2000. This continued recognition reflects our agency's dedication to meeting and exceeding nationally recognized standards in policy, training, operations, and accountability.

Chief Terry Spry, Deputy Chief Chris Hill, and Accreditation Manager Taylor Sloop attended the CALEA Conference in Tucson, Arizona, where they formally appeared before the Commission to present the results of our most recent assessment. Following a thorough review, the Commission approved our reaccreditation, reaffirming our commitment to professional excellence and transparency in service to our community.

Participation in the CALEA process requires ongoing evaluation and adherence to best practices, ensuring our policies, procedures, and operations remain current, effective, and aligned with national standards. This achievement is a direct reflection of the hard work and dedication of the men and women of the Kannapolis Police Department.

Beyond The Badge

Cops Target Kids for Christmas

The Kannapolis Police Department has partnered with Target to make Christmas special for dozens of children throughout the community since 2011. "Cops Target Kids for Christmas" is an opportunity for the men and women of the Kannapolis Police Department to have a significant impact on the lives of disadvantaged children within the city.

On December 9th and 11th, 2025 the children were each paired with a Police Officer for a day of fun activities which included breakfast, lunch, and shopping. The children also had their picture taken with Santa.

The outpouring of support from the business community allowed the Cops Target Kids for Christmas program to again be a huge success. A total of 63 children each received a new pair of shoes and $450 dollars with which to shop. The generosity of all involved helped each child experience a brighter Christmas.

Coat Drive: We also did a coat drive during the month and received an estimated 200 coats to be given to people in need.

Community Outreach

National Night Out

National Night Out is an annual community-building campaign that promotes police-community partnerships and provides a great opportunity to bring police and neighbors together under positive circumstances. National Night Out is about making neighborhoods safer, more caring places to live. The event aids in developing relationships between neighbors and law enforcement and providing residents with a true sense of community.

On August 8, 2025, the Kannapolis Police Department celebrated National Night Out with free food, free school supplies, children's games, and much more. National Night Out continues to be successful in bringing people together and fostering positive friendships.

Coloring Contest Winner

The Kannapolis Police Department held a patch coloring contest and designs were received from Kannapolis children. Elementary school children were asked to submit a creative design by coloring a Police Department's uniform patch. The entries were voted on by department employees. The winning design, by Harper Belk, was turned into a decal and was displayed on the back window of all police vehicles through the month of June.

Canine Therapy Program

In 2024, the Kannapolis Police Department implemented a therapy dog program. It was determined the program would be a great way to promote wellness for the department's employees. Once the program was drafted, it took a little time to get the perfect dog for the department. Millie, a one-year-old Bernedoodle, serves as the agency's first therapy dog.

In April of 2024, when four officers were killed in the line of duty in Charlotte, Taylor Wise of Duncan Doodles, was devastated by this loss as was the community. She felt called to donate two puppies to law enforcement. Millie was one of the puppies and the other puppy, her sister, was donated to CMPD and is serving a similar capacity. The department instantly fell in love with her. Millie and her handler, Lieutenant Justin Smith, received training and AKC Therapy Dog Certification from "The Dog Knowledge" of Charlotte.

While on duty, Millie attends everyday functions like staff meetings, community events like National Night Out, and critical incidents and traumatic events when police department staff are involved. She is an old soul, and it is sometimes easy to forget that she is still technically a puppy who still has an occasional accident. Millie is quite intuitive. She can be gentle and calm when needed, but also knows when an employee wants to play, and she is happy to oblige.
